COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

A total of just over 28% of the 1962 tax commitment has been paid to date. This is well ahead of last year when only 17% of the taxes had been paid by the last of September. The non-resident taxes are coming in a little faster than the resident taxes. About 53% of the non-resident taxes have been paid.

The town received fifty-two rolls of new snow fence and a carload of salt this past week. The old snow fence is in bad shape but will be used as long as it holds together. With the ordering of snow fence and salt, the cold weather is just around the corner.

The town road improvement should be finished Thursday night. The work has gone along well except for one day when one truck broke down. The new construction won't be tarred until next year. The section that was built last year and penetrated with tar this year will not be mulched until next year. The Sargent Construction Company has been hauling over the section built last year. As most people know, the Grover Hill Road, and Lover's Lane have been damaged by the heavy trucks. Mr. Sargent has agreed to restore these town roads to their condition before the heavy trucks broke them up. I expect that Mr. Sargent will have the town to do the repair work and he will reimburse the town the way he has in the past.

CONSERVANCY MEETING NOTES FALLS ATTRACTION —GRAFTON PARK OPTION

A field trip, luncheon, after-luncheon program of two illustrated talks, and brief business meeting were included in the 1962 Annual Membership Meeting of Nature Conservancy's Maine Chapter, held at Step Falls, Newry, and Sudbury Inn, Bethel, August 21. Thirty-eight were present at the luncheon, forty-seven at the afternoon meeting (17 members, 30 guests).

Step Falls, the Conservancy's first acquisition in Maine, was featured. The slides of Step Falls, in spring, summer, autumn, winter, shown by Charles Heywood, depicted their beauty with almost more vividness than can be perceived in direct observation.

Lawrence Stuart, Director of Maine State Parks, in his talk and slides, noted the many scenic values of the Grafton Notch area as a state park; for instance, Screw Auger Falls with large potholes, the largest 40 feet wide and 30 feet deep; an extended chasm which might be the location of an impressive trail; Old Speck Ronald Willard returned Tuesday from a week end visit with friends in Williamsburg, Va. He attended a football game at William and Mary College while there.

COUNTY FIREFIGHTING SCHOOL TO BE HELD AT RUMFORD SAT., OCT. 6

Fire chiefs, firemen and industrial fire protection personnel from throughout Oxford county have been invited to attend the Rumford Firefighting School Saturday, Oct. 6, at the Oxford Paper Company fire training area.

The school is being sponsored jointly by the Rumford Fire Department and the Plant Protection Department of the Oxford Paper Company.

Registration will be between eight and nine o'clock Saturday morning, Oct. 6, with a one dollar fee to help defray the cost of materials. Classes will run from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

Shirley Hamel of Blanchard Associates and Charles Ross, Maintenance Foreman of Oxford's Plant Protection Department will instruct the class in First Aid Firefighting; Pit fire instruction will be handled by Rumford Deputy Chief Jesse Soule and Oxford Paper Company Fire Chief Lawrence Harpe; Rumford Fire Chief George Bulger and Lewiston Deputy Chief Thomas Mower will instruct the class in Ladders and Hose evolutions; Norway Fire Chief Robert Butters and Rumford Lieutenant Sam Puaia will direct instruction in masks, interior fires and ventilation; Deputy Chief Clarence Penley and Captain Vincent Giberti of the Auburn Fire Department will instruct in the handling of pumps, and Falmouth Chief Harold Jones and State Fire Instructor Freeman Patterson will cover salvage and forcible entry.

All persons attending the school are expected to come dressed to participate.

Mountain, the third highest in Maine, 3180 feet high; and Speck Pond, a wild, mountain-top pond. The character of this mountain is revealed by the fact that the fire tower was so often enclosed by clouds that it was of less use than those on lower heights and hence was discontinued. In fact, the Grafton Notch area is one of the most spectacular parts of the whole Appalachian Trail from Maine to Georgia.

The State Park Commission's option for purchase of the Notch area holds only during the next session of the state legislature, since other interests want to have it subdivided for hotel, motel, and/or ski area. The Commission in its report to the next legislature plans to give highest priority for purchase, at an appraised price which is reasonable, to this Grafton Notch area.

Officers and trustees elected were: Chairman, Charles Heywood, Bethel; Vice-Chairman, Charles P. Bradford, Manchester; Secretary, Miss Dorothea Marston, Halliwell; Treasurer, — continued on page four —

The class of 1963 has voted on its officers. They are: President, Bruce Moulton; Vice-President, Jane Allen; Secretary, Carolyn Chandler; and Treasurer, Daniel Grover.

Merit Scholarship Competition

Headmaster Edmond J. Vachon of Gould has announced that three of the Academy's students have been named semi-finalists in the 1962-1963 National Merit Scholarship competition. They became semi-finalists through their outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, the first step in the eighth annual Merit program. The students cited for their high achievement are George H. Eypner, Bethel; Trafton L. Foster, Bethel; and Kathleen F. Towne, Kennebunk.

These three are among approximately 11,000 seniors—about 1% of the nation's graduating secondary school senior population—who attained this status. They are "representative of the best of a new generation of young people who are increasingly conscious of the importance of intellectual achievement"—John M. Stalnaker, President of the non-profit National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Semi-finalists will take a further test on December 1, 1962 to help determine those who will be finalists. In addition to their scores on the tests, they will be judged on their high school grades, creative accomplishments, leadership qualities, and school citizenship.

The winners will be announced on or about April 24, 1963.

Gould Takes Lyndon 9-7

Gould Academy traveled to Lyndon Center last Saturday to win the opening game of the season and become the first of the two teams to win on the opponent's home grounds. All previous victories in this "home and away" series had been won by the home team.

Gould scored first in the opening period with Hamilton driving over from the four yard line after a sustained 52 yard march. Corriveau place kicked the extra point and Gould led 7-0.

In the second period, the Vermonters tied the score as Jim Hill intercepted a pass and romped 50 yards to score. Forrest place kicked the extra point and from there on the game remained 7-7 until late in the final stanza.

With only two minutes to go and Lyndon on their own seven yard line, they elected to punt. A bad pass from center, however, rolled into the end zone and resulted in a safety for two points and a win for the Huskies.

This Saturday at 2:00 p. m. Gould will entertain the powerful Winthrop High team that last week broke Lisbon High's win streak at 16. This will be a tough test for a not too strong Academy eleven.

Tomorrow-GO JET-SMOOTH CHEVROLET for '63

If it didn't say Chevrolet on the flanks of the superb automobile you see here, you'd have a hard time proving it's a low-priced car. It offers luxurious styling, extremely comfortable, spacious and silent interiors... plus a lot of invisible ways to keep it looking and running like new when a lot of others have started to sag and sigh: new flush and dry rocker panels under the doors to guard against rusting... self-adjusting brakes... Delcotron generator for longer battery life. If you ever wondered why Chevrolet leads its field, a drive in this '63 should answer all your questions.

GO CHEVY II for '63-IT'S EXCITING!

GO CORVAIR for '63-IT'S EXCITING!

Hard as it may be to believe, this year's Chevy II is better, better than last year's and better than anything in its class. It combines all the new easy-care features of the big Chevrolet with its own wonderful attributes of parkable size, four- or six-cylinder fuel economy and interiors that'd do justice to cars with twice its price and half its charm.

Change it? Calm yourself, nobody's going to mess with a winner like this one! We did add self-adjusting brakes and a more fully aluminized muffler; interiors and outside trim are refined a bit, but the rest is pure Corvair with all the over-the-road goodness that implies. Oh yes, we changed the taillights so all those people you pass will know you're driving a '63.

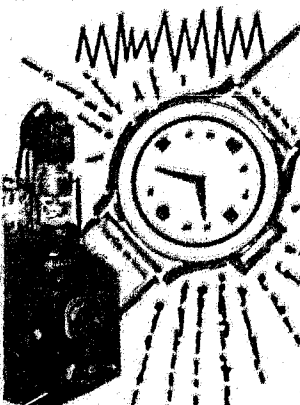

It's Chevy Showtime '63!—See four entirely different kinds of cars at your Chevrolet Dealer's Showroom

SCHOOL NEWS

Last Friday Dr. John Cass and Mrs. Ruth Pennell of the State Dept. of Education, presented a program to the teachers of School Union No. 22, about Elementary School Guidance.

Dr. Cass stressed the importance of Self Identity and Individual Differences in the elementary school as the basis of a sound guidance from the class room teachers.

Mrs. Pennell told of the Pilot Program of Elementary School Guidance which is sponsored by the State in five schools throughout Maine. This program is called Operation HYPO—which is aimed to help youth stimulate opportunities. Much of the program was devoted to dealing with problems that would pertain to our own school situation.

The program ended with a movie entitled "When I'm Old Enough—Goodbye." This movie explained the importance of Guidance in school and how with proper Guidance many who would be drop-outs would remain in school.

On Oct. 3-4-5 there will be no school. October 3 will be Oxford County Teachers Convention which is to be held at Stephens High School in Rumford, October 4 and 5 is State Teachers Convention in Portland.

BIBLE READING, PRAYER OK IN MAINE SCHOOLS

What is a sound position for teachers in the furor over prayer and Bible reading in the public schools?

The Summer Conference of the Maine Teachers Association met only a month or two after the Supreme Court had invalidated an official prayer in New York state. With the problem fresh in their minds, the 130 teachers who attended the conference debated their responsibilities.

They weighed the need to provide moral guidance for children with the absolute necessity to keep denominational teaching out of the public schools. Were the two goals incompatible? The teachers at the conference did not think so.

After long discussion they approved a resolution that said, "while it is not the business of the schools to teach religion teachers are obligated to provide a climate in which there may be character development and growth in the possession of moral and spiritual values."

As far as Maine goes, the Lord's prayer and Bible readings can still be part of this "climate." The State Department of Education has told School Boards to continue the practices they had already established under existing Maine law.

In fact, as the smoke of controversy clears, the Supreme Court decision is seen as a lot less startling than it appeared at first glance. The Supreme Court did not rule out all prayers. In the words of Justice Clark, it invalidated "a state-written prayer circulated to state-employed teachers with instructions to have their pupils recite it." In other words, the State of New York had prescribed the form of worship and a majority of the Supreme Court said this is unconstitutional. The fact that the prayer was undenominational and approved by several faiths did not alter the situation the Court held.

However, we have probably not heard the last word from the Supreme Court. Two cases involving Bible reading in the schools, one from Maryland and one from Pennsylvania, have been appealed to the Court. The decision in these cases will come closer to Maine law which states that there shall be, in all public schools, daily or at suitable intervals, readings from the Scriptures with special emphasis upon the Ten Commandments, the Psalms of David, the Proverbs of Solomon, the Sermon on the Mount, and the Lord's Prayer.

In the meantime, anyone who would like to read in full the Supreme Court decision in the New York case may obtain a mimeographed copy from the Maine Teachers Association, 184 State Street, Augusta.

NAVY SETS DECEMBER 8 FOR ANNUAL NROTC EXAM

The 17th annual national competitive examination for the Regular Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps will be given to eligible high school seniors and graduates on Dec. 8. Application forms are now available and must be mailed by November 16.

Designed to supplement the officer output of the Naval Academy, the NROTC program makes it possible for a young man to earn a regular commission while studying at the civilian college of his choice which has an NROTC unit. All tuition, fees and books are furnished by the Navy, and the student receives an annual retainer of $600 for not more than four years. During the summers the student goes on interesting training cruises as a midship-man. After successfully completing the usual four year college course, he is commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and goes on active duty as a prospective career officer with the Navy's modern fleets. Immediate challenging assignments to flight training or submarine training will offer varied career potential to those who apply and qualify.

High school seniors and graduates who have reached the 17th anniversary of birth and have not reached the 21st anniversary of birth on June 30, 1963, may apply for the NROTC aptitude test. Those who make a qualifying score will be given a rigid medical exam early in 1963. From the number of qualified young men remaining in competition, more than 2000 will be selected to begin their naval careers in college next September.

Application forms are available at high schools, Navy Recruiting Station or from the Chief of Naval Personnel, Department of the Navy, Washington 25, D. C.

ers, Sidney Verrill, of Lebanon, Mo., and Thomas Verrill, San Francisco, Calif.

Funeral services will be held in California.

LEAVES BEAUTIFUL BUT DANGEROUS ON WET ROADS

"DANGER! WET LEAVES!" The warning, just above, has been issued by the State Police as Maine's beautiful fall foliage trickled slowly to the ground.

"Soon," the enforcement organization observed, "our streets and highways will be covered in many places with a blanket of leaves. Beautiful as the are on the trees, these leaves can be a disastrous trap for the unwary motorist. As they become wet from rain or dew, they 'grease' the road, creating a condition which poses the threat of a dangerous skid.

"Drive over leaves as you would drive on ice," cautioned the police. "Drive slowly and use your brakes cautiously with a rapid pumping action. Slamming on the brakes in such a situation may throw you into a disastrous skid.

"Don't be caught unawares and don't discount the danger of this situation. Wet leaves are a very real, a very definite driving hazard."

September is "back-to-school" month in Maine. At certain definite times each week day, we should expect youngsters to be out in force, going to and returning from school. Please accept more than your share of responsibility for their safety in traffic.
